U.S. Probation Officer Action:

On August 1, 2007, Brophy was placed on this District's (Phase 1) "code-a-phone" random drug testing program, in which he will be required to submit to drug testing at least 3 times per month. Subsequent to his recent admission of recreational marijuana use, Brophy requested, and has since been referred, to an Intensive outpatient substance abuse counseling program (IOP). The undersigned officer will also require that Brophy continue to be subjected to an enhanced reporting schedule to ensure full compliance with all of the conditions of his supervised release. Any subsequent failure to adhere to either the code a phone random testing program, or the IOP treatment program requirements will result in Court notification and the initiation of violation proceedings.

NO Court intervention is requested at this time. Instead, the undersigned officer requests that this notice serve as an Official Reprimand. Any future positive urine screens and/or failure to adhere to treatment program requirements will result in Court notification and the initiation of violation proceedings.

Respectfully submitted,

By:
Justine Peterson
U.S. Probation Officer

Date: 08/23/07
